> WHEN YOU CAN GO

Whether looking for college credit, a chance to travel during a career break, or simply a volunteer vacation for the family, our volunteers come from very different parts of the world, and very different places in life.

From young children traveling with their families to 86-year old adventurers, the range of life experience and backgrounds coming together at the Cross-Cultural Solutions Home-Base is always unique, and always exciting. You'll gain new friendships and perspectives as you and your fellow volunteers get to know one another and share in the adventure of volunteering abroad.

CCS is committed to make volunteering abroad possible for people of all ages, abilities, and all walks of life. We recognize that volunteering abroad is a highly personal experience, so we've designed our programs with flexibility in mind to ensure the best quality experience for all.

We understand how to work with individuals and groups who have very specific needs to ensure the safest travel experience possible. We can even accommodate teens wishing to travel on their own through our Teen Volunteer Abroad program.

Please contact us for more information. We are happy to answer questions about local resources, the support our in-country staff provides, and the ability to tailor to individual capacities.
